

I am opposed to any regulatory change that would allow greater concentration of media control. Please help stop conglomerates from swallowing up independent newspapers and broadcast outlets. The quality of news and information is in danger of being as tainted as the average American diet. Thankyou.